- 9 This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

The Standards for RTOs require the Institute to inform students considering enrolment of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-to-door sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty.

It must be noted that our Institute does not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period in not applicable to our students who have enrolled into a course. For refund option in other circumstances, students must refer to the refund policy.

The refund will be paid to you within 2 weeks of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in an alternative course by GI at no extra cost to you. You have the right to choose whether you would prefer a full refund of course fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, we will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. If GI is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will be responsible for providing refunds or providing assistance to locate an alternative.
- 11 Fees not listed in the refund section are not refundable. Prior to a student enrolling fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course.
- 12 Students wishing to defer the commencement of studies or suspend their studies must complete deferral or suspension form and submit to GI. GI may decide to suspend or cancel a student's enrolment on its own initiate as a response to misbehavior by the student. Deferral of commencement, suspension of enrolment and cancellation of enrolment have to be reported to Department of Home Affairs and may affect the status of a student visa.
- 13 Students must notify GI of changes of address, telephone number, email address and fax number within 7 days they occur. Failure to do this may mean student do not receive important information which may affect their course, their enrolment or the visa.

PART G – Terms and Conditions

Course commencement

If a student fails to commence the course within 14 days of the nominated course start date, the Institute will notify Department of Home Affairs via PRISM. Any student cannot commence the course due to visa rejection or any other circumstances faced by the student after being issued a visa, the student must inform the Institute immediately.

Academic Progress

Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress at all times. All the courses are scheduled 20 hours per week (15 hours of face-to-face classroom based and 5 hours of online based delivery). Students are expected to attend classes regularly to maintain satisfactory course progress each term.

Attendance Monitoring

All students must attend their schedule classes to maintain satisfactory academic progress. They must have a minimum of 80% attendance at all times throughout their enrolment periods. If an overseas student is making satisfactory progress in their course without attending scheduled classes then the course duration will be shortened to the minimum duration required given the student's existing skills and knowledge, while maintaining the minimum scheduled course contact hours (20 hours) per week. Please note that, the regulator (ASQA) may, at any time, require a training provider (GI) to implement policies and procedures to monitor minimum attendance requirements and if students don't meet these requirements, they will be in breach of a condition of their visa.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

All International Students are required to pay Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) and maintain cover for the full length of their visa. It is also the student's responsibility to check the conditions of this health cover.

Issuing of Certificates and Delivery

GI is solely responsible for the delivery of all courses and for the issuance of their certifications.

Complaints and Appeals Policy

Students have access to a Complaints and Appeals procedure if they feel they have been unjustly treated or have a serious complaint. Students who feel they have any type of complaint should first contact the Administration Manager. If necessary the complaint will be referred to the Principal Executive Officer in order to resolve the situation. A student dissatisfied with an activity or a decision regarding their academic outcomes can voice their concerns to the staff member concerned and, if appropriate, appeal to the Principal Executive Officer.

If students are still dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint / grievance / appeal then students may lodge an external appeal or complain about the decision with the Overseas Students Ombudsman. The Overseas Students Ombudsman offers a free and independent service for overseas students who have a complaint or want to lodge an external appeal about a decision made by their private education or training provider. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website <http://www.ombudsman.gov.au/How-we-can-help/overseas-students> or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

Student Code of Conduct

All people associated with GI have the same rights. Harassment, bullying and victimisation will not be tolerated at GI. Discrimination on any grounds is unacceptable. Students who feel that they are being sexually harassed or are the victims of any sort of racism should initially contact the Administration Manager. If the complaint is sufficiently serious, the Principal Executive Officer may establish a formal inquiry and/or refer to external authorities.
