Written Agreement (International Student)

ALL SECTIONS OF THIS DOCUMENT CONSTITUTE THE WRITTEN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE STUDENT AND GLOBAL INSTITUTE

- All fees and charges must be paid in full prior to course commencement unless a "payment plan" is arranged with GLOBAL INSTITUTE. Student tuition fees are safeguarded through the use of insurance and assurance schemes mandated by Australian Legislation.
- A non-refundable Enrolment/Application fee and CoE issuing fee (exclusive of tuition fees and material fees) is required at the time of enrolment and this guarantees your place in the course. The enrolment deadline is 10 working days after the commencement of the course.
- 5. Students, who fall behind in the payment of their fees or fail to pay their tuition fee on the due date, may be charged a late payment fee of $100.00 per week or may be refused training and assessment services and any requests until such times as the fees are paid and up to date. Please note that students will be required to maintain academic course progress in consultation with the Academic Coordinator.
- 6. Should fees remain overdue for more than one day after the due date, GLOBAL INSTITUTE will inform the student of their intention to report them for non-payment of fees to DHA via PRISMS. No refunds will be paid to a third party unless it is indicated at the time the Refund Application Form is lodged, that any refunds due are payable to a third party
- Where a refund is approved, GLOBAL INSTITUTE College will make payment of refunds within 28 days of receipt of the Refund Application Form.
- 8. In the case of default by GLOBAL INSTITUTE College, the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2019 apply. For further information about the ESOS Act please see $\underline{https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx}$

Incorrect, fraudulent or misleading information or document submitted by the student or the authorized education agent	No refund
Does not commence (i.e Does not arrive, or has not arranged with us for a later start because of health or compassionate reason)	No refund

- Note: ▶ * Initial course agreed start date is the date of the First Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) issued to the student, prior to any deferment, suspension or revisions.

 > Deferment, Suspension or Cancellation of Enrolment Application Form must be received at
- least 28 days prior to the commencement of the following term/s.
- For deferment, No refund will be applicable unless visa has not been granted. No refund will
- be given after an approved deferment or suspension.
- 9. This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.
 - The Standards for RTOs require the Institute to inform students considering enrolment of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-todoor sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty.
 - It must be noted that our Institute does not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period in not applicable to our students who have enrolled into a course. For refund option in other circumstances, students must refer to the refund policy.
- 10. In the unlikely event that GLOBAL INSTITUTE is unable to deliver your course in full, you will be offered a refund of all the course money you have paid to date. The refund will be paid to you within 2 weeks of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in an alternative course by GLOBAL INSTITUTE at no extra cost to you. You have the right to choose whether you would prefer a full refund of course fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, we will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. If GLOBAL INSTITUTE is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will be responsible for providing refunds or providing assistance to locate an alternative.
- 11. Fees not listed in the refund section are not refundable. Prior to a student enrolling fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course.
- 12. Students wishing to defer the commencement of studies or suspend their studies must complete deferral or suspension form and submit to GLOBAL INSTITUTE. GLOBAL INSTITUTE may decide to suspend or cancel a student's enrolment on its own initiate as a response to misbehavior by the student. Deferral of commencement, suspension of enrolment and cancellation of enrolment have to be reported to Department of Home Affairs and may affect the status of a student visa.
- 13. Students must notify GLOBAL INSTITUTE of changes of address, telephone number, email address and fax number within 7 days they occur. Failure to do this may mean student do not receive important information which may affect their course, their enrolment or the visa-

PART H: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

If a student fails to commence the course within 14 days of the nominated course start date, the Institute will notify Department of Home Affairs via PRISM.

Any student cannot commence the course due to visa rejection or any other circumstances faced by the student after being issued a visa, the student must inform the Institute immediately

Academic Progress

Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress at all times. All the courses are scheduled 20 hours per week (15 hours of face-to-face classroom based and 5 hours of online based delivery). Students are expected to attend classes regularly to maintain satisfactory course progress each term.

Attendance Monitoring

All students must attend their schedule classes to maintain satisfactory academic progress. If an overseas student is making satisfactory progress in their course without attending scheduled classes then the course duration will be shortened to the minimum duration required given the student's existing skills and knowledge, while maintaining the minimum scheduled course contact hours (20 hours) per week. Please note that, the regulator (ASQA) may, at any time, require a training provider (GLOBAL INSTITUTE) to implement policies and procedures to monitor minimum attendance requirements and if students don't meet these requirements, they will be in breach of a condition of their visa

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

All International Students are required to pay Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) and maintain cover for the full length of their visa. It is also the student's responsibility to check the conditions of this health cover.

Issuing of Certificates and Delivery

GLOBAL INSTITUTE is solely responsible for the delivery of all courses and for the issuance of their certifications.

Students have access to a Complaints and Appeals procedure if they feel they have been unjustly treated or have a serious complaint. Students who feel they have any type of complaint should first contact the Administration Manager. If necessary the complaint will be referred to the Principal Executive Officer in order to resolve the situation. A student dissatisfied with an activity or a decision regarding their academic outcomes can voice their concerns to the staff member concerned and, if appropriate, appeal to the Principal Executive Officer.

If students are still dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint / grievance / appeal then students may lodge an external appeal or complain about the decision with the Overseas Students Ombudsman. The Overseas Students Ombudsman offers a free and independent service for overseas students who have a complaint or want to lodge an external appeal about a decision made by their private education or training provider. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website http://www.ombudsman.gov.au/Howwe-can-help/overseas-students or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

Student Code of Conduct

All people associated with GLOBAL INSTITUTE have the same rights. Harassment, bullying and victimisation will not be tolerated at GLOBAL INSTITUTE. Discrimination on any grounds is unacceptable. Students who feel that they are being sexually harassed or are the victims of any sort of racism should initially contact the Administration Manager. If the complaint is sufficiently serious, the Principal Executive Officer may establish a formal inquiry and/or refer to external authorities.

Change of Address and Contact Details

Upon arriving in Australia you are required to advise us of your residential and email address, telephone number and of any subsequent changes to these contact details. It is your responsibility to ensure that you always update your contact details at the Institute to ensure you receive important information about your course, fees receipts and any other important information at least 7 days.

Privacy Notice

Why we collect your personal information

As a registered training organisation (RTO), we collect your personal information so we can process and manage your enrolment in a vocational education and training (VET) course with us.

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information to enable us to deliver VET courses to you, and otherwise, as needed, to comply with our obligations as an RTO.

How we disclose your personal information

We are required by law (under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cth) (NVETR Act)) to disclose the personal information we collect about you to the National VET Data Collection kept by the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER). The NCVER is responsible for collecting, managing, analysing and communicating research and statistics about the Australian VET sector.

We are also authorised by law (under the NVETR Act) to disclose your personal information to the relevant state or territory training authority.

How the NCVER and other bodies handle your personal information
The NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the NVETR Act. Your personal information may be used and disclosed by NCVER for purposes that include populating authenticated VET transcripts; administration of VET; facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage; and understanding the VET market.

The NCVER is authorised to disclose information to the Australian Government Department of Education, Skills and Employment (DESE), Commonwealth authorities, State and Territory authorities (other than registered training organisations) that deal with matters relating to VET and VET regulators for the purposes of those bodies, including to enable:

- Administration of VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation
- facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage
- Understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consume information.

The NCVER may also disclose personal information to persons engaged by NCVER to conduct research on NCVER's behalf.

The NCVER does not intend to disclose your personal information to any overseas recipients.

For more information about how the NCVER will handle your personal information please refer to the NCVER's Privacy Policy at www.ncver.edu.au/privacy
